MRS. BENJAMIN B. THWAITES
... Recites Vows

Kay Preble is Married On Parents' Anniversary

On the 29th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Preble, 1706 265th St., Lomita, Miss Kay Ellen Preble on Tuesday evening, April 30, at 7:30 p.m. walked down the aisle of the Wayfarers' Chapel at Portuguese Bend to become the bride of Benjamin Barclay Thwaites. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thwaites of Wilmington.

Mr. Preble walked to the altar with his daughter. She wore a lace and tulle gown made with a fitted lace bodice and a three tiered tulle length tulle skirt. A pearl tiara secured her fingertip veil and she carried white orchids encircled by stephanotis. Miss Carolyn Goad in tangerine crystallette and carrying Talisman roses was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Joan Rice and Barbara Frownfelter. They wore pale yellow gowns and carried yellow carnations.

Marilyn Bartel in yellow lace carried a yellow basket of flowers and Charles Collier, Jr. was the ring bearer. Best man was Garland Bassett and ushers were Mike Thorn and Rex Thwaites. The Rev. Kenneth Knox officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held at the bride's home and the couple left for a Palm Springs honeymoon. Upon their return they will be at home at 1857 262nd St., Lomita.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High school and attended Harbor Junior College. The bridegroom is a Banning High graduate. He also attended Harbor JC before entering the United States Air Force for four years.

FILMING TIME
It requires about 15 minutes of camera shooting time for each minute of finished film to be produced on a typical television drama show.

MRS. WILLIAM T. SANDERS
... On Honeymoon

NANCY HENRY IS NOW MRS. WILLIAM SANDERS

Baskets of white stock and pink carnation interspersed with pink candles in white candelabra decorated the chancel of the Western Avenue Baptist Church last Thursday evening, April 25, for the wedding ceremony uniting Miss Nancy Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neale B. Henry, 1308 W. Carson, and William T. Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edison Sanders of San Pedro.

As the 225 wedding guests assembled Mrs. Esther Howe sang "Because of You," "I Love Thee" and the "Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy McDonald who also played the wedding marches. Candles were lighted by Jerry Davis and John Sharp.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and sheer illusion which was appliqued with lace flowers. Her fingertip veil was held by a tiara and she carried a small white Bible topped with white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Shirley Walker was the matron of honor; Miss Frances Specht, maid of honor, and Mrs. Lexie St. Amand, bridesmaid. Their gowns were of pale pink lace with rose pink cummerbunds. Their bouquets were showers of pink and rose pink carnations.

Little Kathy Henry, niece of the bride, wearing pink crystalline trimmed with pink lace, dropped pink petals in the path of the bride and her father, Tommy Johnson carried the rings. Michael Kiley served as best man and ushers were Eric Vitalich and Raulin Walker. Rev. Walter Graham officiated at the marriage. Mrs. Lillian Henry was in charge of the guest register. After the wedding, a reception was held in the church. A beautiful pink cake with white and silver trim and pink and white wedding bells decorated the bride's table. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Eloide Grubbs of Harbor City, Mrs. John Sharp of Oxnard, Mrs. Ola Mae Malinovsky and Mrs. Thelma Kerrell of San Pedro, sisters of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Leo Sanders of Los Angeles.

The couple are spending a honeymoon in Palm Springs. The bride was graduated from Narbonne High School, Harbor Junior College, where she was vice president of the Theta Chi Omega sorority, and coordinator of publicity. Mr. Sanders was graduated from San Pedro High School, Harbor Junior College, where he was affiliated with Kappa Sigma Phi. He is now assistant credit manager for a bakery firm.

Bridal Party Entertained

Pink and white wedding bells set the theme for the dinner following the wedding rehearsal Friday evening, April 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald B. Roberts, 205 Via Colusa. Their daughter Helen became the bride of Robert Hammack on Sunday.

The dinner, served buffet style, featured pink and white sweet peas on a pink cloth with pink and white bells suspended over the table. The day was also the birthday of the groom. A cake in the shape of two wedding bells was joined together with pink carnations. The greetings on one bell read "Best Wishes" and on the other "Happy Birthday, Bob."

The guests included the wedding party and the dates of the bridesmaids. Those present were Messrs. and Mrs. W. Glenn Hammack, Theodore Carrington, Lee Richardson, and the hosts. Others attending included Rev. and Mrs. Nathan Bond, Misses Linda Thistle, Jill Alber, Beverly Onkes, Pamela Penrod; Mrs. C. L. Penrod, the groom's sister, Robert Broddus, Arthur Roberts, and the bride and groom. Unable to attend was the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Verma Thistle, and Sherwood Tierney, the soloist.

The bride-to-be was honored at a miscellaneous shower given recently by Linda Thistle. The guests were 40 of Helen's high school friends.

A Valentine motif was used by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Youngberg of Beverly Hills when they gave a linen shower for the young couple. The Youngbergs were assisted by their two daughters, Mrs. Robert Williams of Encino, and Mrs. William L. Homes, Inglewood. The party was attended by 16 members of the family and close friends.

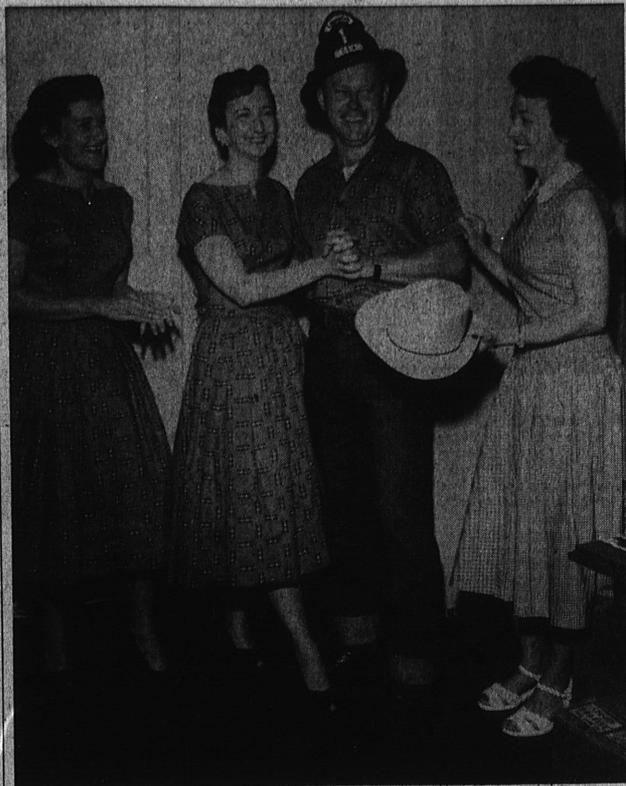

POT-LUCK GROUP

Mr. and Mrs. William McFadden were hosts to their pot luck group Sunday evening at their Redondo Beach home. Their guests were Judge and Mrs. Otto Willett, Mrs. Laura Felker, and Messrs. and Mrs. Lee Kendall, B. W. Roberts and Gilbert Derouin.

SEE MY FAIR LADY

Attending opening night, Monday, of the musical "My Fair Lady" at the Los Angeles Philharmonic Auditorium, were two Torrance couples, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ruffraff, 2287 Torrance Blvd., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clausing, 1542 Post Ave.
